Get Your Spring Planting Off To A GREAT Start!

2008 Spring Garden Fair

Mark Your Calendars!

SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 2008

9:00am–3:30pm

NEW LOCATION!
Redmond City Hall Campus
15670 NE 85th
Redmond, WA

ADMISSION IS FREE

Ciscoe Morris will be broadcasting his 710 KIRO radio show live. Meeghan Black from King5 News will be your hostess.

For more information visit www.springgardenfair.com or contact Deborah Rannfeldt at 425.487.4102

7 Seminars to Help the Waterwise Gardener!

9:00am–10:00am	Natural Yard Care	Ladd Smith
9:30am–10:30am	A Dry Lush: The Exuberant Drought Tolerant Garden (Book Signing After Presentation)	Dan Hinkley
11:00am–12:00pm	The Peaceful Garden Stop Fighting Mother Nature and Father Time (Book Signing After Presentation)	Marianne Binetti
11:30am–12:30pm	Smart Watering: Maximizing Irrigation System Efficiency	Janet Sailer
12:00pm–1:00pm	Honey, I Shrunk the Lawn	Greg Rabourn
12:30pm–1:30pm	Growing Healthy Soil	David McDonald
2:00pm–3:00pm	Ciscoe's Favorite Drought Tolerant Plants (Book Signing After Presentation)	Ciscoe Morris with Meeghan Black

PLUS: Door Prizes! One FREE bag of Cedar Grove Compost will be given to seminar attendees while supplies last. Limit two per household (if two members attend seminars during the day).

INFORMATION BOOTHS/DISPLAYS:

- Washington Native Plant Society
- East Lake Washington Audubon Society
- Master Recycler Composters
- Master Gardeners
- Master Home Environmentalists
- King Conservation District
- City of Woodinville Tree Board
- Cedar Grove Compost
- Barnes and Noble Book Fair
- From your sponsors: Water Conservation, Water Quality and Pesticide-Free Gardening Information

DEMONSTRATION:

11:30am–12:00pm and 1:40pm–2:10pm
Grasscycling (Learn about the advantages of mulch mowing)

ACTIVITIES:

- Rainbarrel ($69) and Compost Bin ($40) Sale*
- Perennial and Native Plant Sale*
- Kids can make a terrarium with Nature Vision Naturalists and see the water cycle in action!

*Cash or Check Only for sales of these items

Vendors invited to this year's fair will be making a donation toward Nature Vision's water education programs. Nature Vision, Inc. is a non-profit organization (501c3).

Sponsored by Woodinville Water District, Northshore Utility District, the City of Bothell, the City of Redmond, the Saving Water Partnership and Cascade Water Alliance.

Woodinville Water District · Northshore Utility District Water Sewer · City of Bothell State of Washington · City of Redmond Washington · Saving Water Partnership A service of your local water utility · Cascade Water Alliance