Section 2. A new section 10A.92.070, Valid Foreign Protection Orders, is hereby added to the Bellevue City Code, to read as follows:

10A.92.070 Valid Foreign Protection Orders.

A foreign protection order is valid if the issuing court had jurisdiction over the parties and the matter under the law of the state, territory, possession, tribe, or United States military tribunal. There is a presumption in favor of validity where an order appears authentic on its face.

A person under restraint must be given reasonable notice and the opportunity to be heard before the order of the foreign state, territory, possession, tribe or United States military tribunal was issued, provided, in the case of ex parte orders, notice and opportunity to be heard was given as soon as possible after the order was issued, consistent with due process.

Section 3. A new section 10A.92.080, Violation of Foreign Orders, is hereby added to the Bellevue City Code, to read as follows:

10A.92.080 Violation of Foreign Orders.

(1) Whenever a foreign protection order is granted to a person entitled to protection and the person under restraint knows of the foreign protection order, a violation of a provision prohibiting the person under restraint from contacting or communicating with another person, or of a provision excluding the person under restraint from a residence, workplace, school, or day care, or a violation of any provision for which the foreign protection order specifically indicates that a violation will be a crime, is a gross misdemeanor, unless the violation is classified by the state as a felony under subsections (3) and (4) of Section 9, Chapter 184, Washington Laws of 1999.

(2) Upon conviction, and in addition to any other penalties provided by law, the court may require the person under restraint to submit to electronic monitoring. The court shall specify who will provide the electronic monitoring services, and the terms under which the monitoring will be performed. The order also may include a requirement that the person under restraint pay the costs of the monitoring. The court shall consider the ability of the convicted person to pay for electronic monitoring.

Section 4. A new section 10A.92.090, Child Custody Disputes, is hereby added to the Bellevue City Code, to read as follows:

10A.92.090 Child Custody Disputes.

(1) Any disputes regarding provisions in foreign protection orders dealing with custody of children, residential placement of children, or visitation with children shall be resolved judicially. The proper venue and jurisdiction for such judicial proceedings shall be determined in accordance with chapter 26.27 RCW and in accordance with the parental kidnapping prevention act, 28 U.S.C. 1738A.

(2) A peace officer shall not remove a child from his or her current placement unless:

(a) A writ of habeas corpus to produce the child has been issued by a superior court of this state; or

(b) There is probable cause to believe that the child is abused or neglected and the child would be injured or could not be taken into custody if it were necessary to first obtain a court order pursuant to RCW 12.34.050.

Section 5. Bellevue City Code 10A.92.030, Violation of a Restraining Order, is amended to read as follows:

A. Whenever a restraining order is issued pursuant to Title 26 RCW and the person to be restrained knows of the order, a violation of the provisions restricting the person from acts or threats of violence or of a provision excluding the person from the residence, workplace, school, or day care of another is a gross misdemeanor.

B. A person is deemed to have notice of a restraining order if:

1. The person to be restrained or the person's attorney signed the order;

C. It is a defense to prosecution under subsection A of this section that the court order was issued contrary to law or court rule.

D. Restraining orders issued under Title 26 RCW restraining the person from molesting or disturbing another party or from entering a party's home shall bear the legend required by statute.

Section 6. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days after passage by the City Council.
