

THE POLICE AND THE COMMUNITY

BUILDING BRIDGES
OF UNDERSTANDING
AND COLLABORATION

PRESENTED BY EASTSIDE CONVERSATIONS ON RACE AND CULTURE

Join us in this conversation between police officers, police personnel, and community members. The goal is to create understanding and a collaborative spirit between the community and the police.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 2008

6:00 - 6:30pm Networking

6:30 - 9:00pm Program

North Bellevue Community Center

4063 148th Ave NE

Bellevue, WA , 98007

425-452-7681

Light Refreshments Provided

Guest Speakers: Judge Steve Gonzalez

King County Superior Court

Chief Linda Pillo

Bellevue Police

For more information and to RSVP: Callie Shanafelt at cshanafelt@bellevuewa.gov or 425-452-7922.

Sponsored by the City of Bellevue Parks & Community Services Cultural Diversity Program. Endorsed by Eastside Asian Pacific Islanders, Institute for Community Involvement, Black Council of the Eastside, Japanese Americans Citizens League Lake Washington Chapter, Eastside Latino Leadership Forum, City University, Main Street Mediation and Communication Services and Bellevue Community College.

The goal of Eastside Conversations on Race and Culture is for participants to gain experience talking about race and culture, and a commitment to do more.