

"Use of Force by the Police and the Influence of the Media"

Presented by the Conversations About Race and Culture Series

May 3, from 5:30-8 pm

Circle of Friends, 121 107th Ave NE, Bellevue, WA 98004

425-454-8585

Hosted by the Bellevue Police Department and the City of Bellevue Parks & Community Services Cultural Diversity Program

Speakers:

John Hamer, President of the Washington News Council

Chief Linda Pillo, Bellevue Police Department

This forum explores use of force by the police and how community members and officers can increase communication, understanding and build trust. This program also focuses on the media's influence in shaping how the public views interaction between police and the public. This forum will feature a 90-minute facilitated discussion about the topic. In addition to Police Chief Pillo, Bellevue officers will also be present to participate in the discussion.

FREE. Refreshments.
