

Lake-to-Lake Greenway Trail Walk—15 K

Connecting Parks, People and Nature

Saturday, Sept 19 – Bellevue, Washington

Join the Northwest Striders and the Bellevue Parks Department to hike one of the nation's most spectacular urban greenway trails. Like pearls on a necklace, Bellevue's Lake-to-Lake Trail connects pristine open space parks, farms, forests, wetlands, formal botanical gardens, and neighborhoods between Lake Sammamish and Lake Washington. Special highlights include the King County Master Gardener Harvest Festival and the Fraser Pioneer Cabin, open to all walkers. 15K and 6K options available. See map.

Cost: Free for the general public and $3 per person for Volkssport members.

Registration: All participants must register the morning of the event, between 8–10 a.m., at the Mercer Slough Blueberry Farm, 2380 Bellevue Way SE – pre-event registration is not available.

Shuttle Bus: Participants will be shuttled from the Mercer Slough Blueberry Farm to the start of the Lake-to-Lake Trail at Weowna Park. Shuttle will run between the hours of 8–10 a.m.

Finish: Mercer Slough Blueberry Farm, by 4 p.m.

Parking: South Bellevue Park & Ride, 2700 Bellevue Way. From the Park & Ride walk north on Bellevue Way to the Mercer Slough Blueberry Farm.

Dont' forget the
Lakemont Lewis Creek 5K walk — Sunday, October 11
10am-3pm, Lewis Creek Park, 5808 Lakemont Blvd

For more information and course maps call Debbie Pettersson, Bellevue Parks & Community Services 425-452-7106 www.bellevuewa.gov.

This information will be provided in alternate formats for individuals with disabilities upon request.
Please provide two weeks advance notice.

Co-sponsored by Bellevue Parks & Community Services and American Volkssport Association, Northwest Striders

