The New MERCER SLOUGH
ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION CENTER
Grand Opening Event

OCT 11, 2008
10AM – 5PM

LOCATED IN BELLEVUE
1625 118th Avenue SE

INTERACTIVE WORKSHOPS
HIKES & TOURS
ACTIVITIES FOR EVERYONE

including "GREEN" talks, native planting, pond explorations & more

MERCER SLOUGH
ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION CENTER

Shuttle service provided
For more info, please visit pacificsciencecenter.org

The Mercer Slough Environmental Education Center is a collaboration of Bellevue Parks & Community Services and Pacific Science Center

CITY OF BELLEVUE WASHINGTON

DISCOVER
PACIFIC SCIENCE CENTER

The expanded facility at the Mercer Slough Environmental Education Center has been made possible through the generous support of City of Bellevue; King County; State of Washington; United States Government-Housing & Urban Development; The Boeing Company; Puget Sound Energy; Microsoft; Paul G. Allen Family Foundation; Tagney Jones Family Fund at the Seattle Foundation; PACCAR Inc; The Seattle Foundation; Berschauer Phillips Construction; CH2M Hill; Sally and Warren Jewell; The Peach Foundation; Jim Ellis; Jerry and Linda Henry; Mountains to Sound Greenway Trust; Jerry and Penny Peabody; Penford Corporation; Sturtevant and Rodgers Family