June 27–October 12, 2014

ENTRY DEADLINE: February 25, 2014

Dear Artist,

On behalf of the City of Bellevue, I invite you to take part in our twelfth biennial sculpture exhibition, Bellwether 2014: Connect. We'll be including outdoor installations and sculpture along a $\frac{3}{4}$ mile route through the heart of our dynamic Downtown.

Bellwether is a community favorite that draws visitors from throughout Bellevue and the Puget Sound region. The two anchor sites, City Hall and Downtown Park, are terrific venues for showcasing art. The walk that connects them offers a variety of contexts and themes for sculpture or installations. With nearly 45,000 people working in our Downtown, and over 10,000 residents living within a few blocks of the exhibition route, all the sites are well-travelled. This is a great opportunity to display your art to a sophisticated, multicultural audience.

Our community is a dynamic cultural center serving King County's Eastside, and this recurring exhibition contributes to the excitement that characterizes our growing city. The Arts Commission is committed to making sure that Bellwether is an outstanding experience for artists as well as the community. Please join us by submitting your entry. I hope to see you at the opening celebration on June 27th.

Sincerely,

Sites: Bellwether 2014: Connect (BW) is sited along a ¼ mile route from Bellevue City Hall to the Downtown Park, tracing part of a future permanent Art Walk. City Hall and the Downtown Park are BW's anchor sites and will focus on sculpture. Between them, publicly and privately-owned sites will host up to eight installations, creating the temporary art walk path. Please see Installation Supplemental Information sheet enclosed for more information about installations.

Selection Criteria: Sculptures and installations will be selected based on quality and aesthetic appeal. Entries aligning with BW's theme will then receive preferred consideration.

Jury and selection process: This will be a competitive entry process juried by a panel of regionally and nationally recognized arts professionals. The panel will create a shortlist of selected entries, followed by a review by the City to consider questions of feasibility, liability and theme consistency.

Additional Reimbursement Opportunities: A limited amount of additional funds for shipping reimbursement is available. Artists whose work is selected for BW may request an application for additional shipping reimbursement. Additional reimbursement decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Installation:

Outdoor Sculptures ~ Free professional installation

Indoor sculptures ~ Installed by artist with limited, free professional assistance

Installations ~ Installed by artist with limited, free professional assistance

Please complete both sides of the enclosed Sculpture Install Worksheet and submit with your entry. Feel free to contact Bellwether staff with questions.

Loan Agreement: Each selected artist or authorized artist representative will sign a loan agreement with the City, authorizing the display of a selected sculpture for the duration of BW.

Insurance: Exhibited sculptures and installations will be insured by the City of Bellevue for the duration of their display in BW, with a deductible of $200. If applied, this deductible will be the responsibility of each artist. Specific terms for insurance are included in the loan agreement.

Sales: Works in the exhibition may be listed for sale, and the City takes no commission. We'll be delighted if your work sells and ask that any work sold during BW remain in the exhibition until it closes.

BELLWETHER 2014 THEME: Connect

Over the past three exhibitions, the theme has expanded from a focus on sustainable connections with the earth to include ideas of how a rapidly diversifying city such as Bellevue can sustain a sense of community as it grows and changes. For 2014 we pare down this idea to its essence: how we connect - with each other, with community, and with the earth.

All entries regardless of theme are welcome.

Installations Supplemental Information Sheet

Installations defined. For BW purposes, we are defining installations roughly as site-specific art works. To encourage more installations along the route between City Hall and the Downtown Park, and to acknowledge the additional challenges these sites represent, we are offering a special honorarium rate for installations that are chosen for sites “along the route.”

Potential Installation Locations. The following locations are tentative, pending the property owner/manager’s agreement to participate.

1. Bellevue Transit Center or plaza directly south

Comments: Transit Center itself is a block-long, narrow facility. Most likely there is no ground level opportunity. Lighting and applications in rafters are more likely opportunities. To the immediate south is a large, open plaza which accommodates both cars (valet parking for a restaurant) and pedestrians. The plaza may be used as a possible site in addition to the Transit Center.

2. Planting beds along north side of the Galleria, next to Rock Bottom Restaurant and Brewery

Comment: Approx 275’ long x 16’ at widest point & about 8’ wide at narrow point. Bed should have minimal or no disruption.

3. Pedestrian Corridor, between 106th and Bellevue Way.

Comment: could include planting bed treatments and fence treatments. Power available in several locations.

4. Bellevue Way NE between NE 6th and NE 4th

Construction planned along Bellevue Way makes opportunities uncertain. Light pole applications are available.

Vetting the Panel Recommendations. Roughly eight outdoor installation proposals may be sited between City Hall and Downtown Park. However, the selection panel will be encouraged to recommend more than eight proposals, identifying their top selections. Each recommended proposal will be vetted by professional art installers and city staff to assess the following aspects of the proposal.

- Are needed resources, such as electricity, available at the site?
- Can the installation be installed and removed in a way that makes site restoration reasonably easy?
- Are the proposed materials and assembly durable enough to last the exhibition with minimal maintenance?
- Are there any public safety issues posed?
- Is the artist or artist team willing to work with property owners as well as exhibition staff and other City representatives to tailor the installation for the site selected?
