

Nature Photography Contest

Do you have a great nature photograph that you took in a Bellevue Park? Do you want to share this with your community and enter to win terrific prizes? Then you should enter the Bellevue Park's Nature Photography Contest! Photo entries are being accepted now! All ages welcome! All entries must be received or postmarked by August 19. The winner will be announced August 25, 2012. For more information please call 425-452-4195.

How to Enter:

Please hand-deliver or mail the following to the addresses listed below.

- One 8.5"x 11" sized print of your Bellevue Park Photograph
- Name
- Address
- Phone
- Email
- Photo description
- Bellevue Park or Open Space name that photo was taken in

You can drop off your photograph along with the above information to:

- Lewis Creek Visitor Center at 5808 Lakemont Blvd. SE, Bellevue WA 98006

You can mail your photograph along with the above information to:

- Bellevue Resource Management: Attention Lewis Creek Visitor Center
16023 Northeast 8th Street, Bellevue, WA 98008

Instructions:

- We will only accept one photo submission per photographer. However, if you are selected as the winner additional photographs by you will be displayed in Bellevue Visitor Centers, so send us your best one!
- All entries must include the information listed above along with an 8.5" x 11" print of the photograph.
- Photos will not be returned to participant.
- Photo must illustrate your interpretation of City of Bellevue Parks (i.e. landscape, wildlife, plants, park, etc.)

What You Win!

The winning photograph along with the rest of your collection will be displayed in various Bellevue Park Environmental Education Centers. Additionally you will win a gift card to Bellevue Art & Frame and a Grand Prize Family Membership to the Bellevue Arts Museum.

From all of us at Bellevue Parks, Good luck!

