

Group Programs

at Lewis Creek

Looking for an engaging program for your club, school group or scout pack?

Lewis Creek Park Rangers offer interpretive walks, talks and hands-on activities featuring different plants, animals, habitats, cultural and natural history.

Exploring a particular chapter in your curricula? Utilize the natural resources of Lewis Creek Park's three distinct habitats – wetland, grassland and forest – and immerse your participants into their studies.

The Leopold Education Project is also at Lewis Creek. Cultivate Leopold's Land Ethic among your group with initiatives inspired by Aldo Leopold's greatest writing: A Sand County Almanac.

For more information or to discuss program possibilities phone 425-452-4195.
