Thursday, October 6: "Get Low"

Oscar winners Robert Duvall and Sissy Spacek team up to tell the true story of irascible Felix Bush, a backwoods Tennessee loner who planned to hold his funeral while he was still around to attend -- and enjoy -- the proceedings. Few folks have spoken with Felix (Duvall) since he disappeared into the Tennessee woods 40 years ago, and the ones who have don't necessarily have kind things to say about him. Gruff, confrontational, and ill-tempered, Felix has been the source of many malicious rumors over the years. When Felix walks into Frank Quinn's (Murray) funeral parlor and announces his intentions to throw himself a massive party before he passes away, word quickly spreads through town. When the big day arrives Felix surprises everyone by revealing why he shunned society to lead a life of solitude.

Thursday, October 13: "Despicable Me"

Villainous Gru (Steve Carell) lives up to his reputation as a despicable, deplorable and downright unlikable guy when he hatches a plan to steal the moon from the sky. But he has a tough time staying on task after three orphans land in his care. Julie Andrews voices the role of Gru's malevolent mom; Jason Segel, Kristen Wiig and Will Arnett round out the ensemble cast in this comic tale that earned a Golden Globe nod for Best Animated Feature.

Thursday, October 20: "Fly Away Home"

Amy is only 13 years old when her mother is killed in a car accident in New Zealand. She goes to Canada to live with her father, an eccentric inventor whom she barely knows. Amy is miserable in her new life...that is until she discovers a nest of goose eggs that were abandoned when developers began tearing up a local forest. The eggs hatch and Amy becomes "Mama Goose" when the baby geese imprint on her. The young birds must fly south for the winter, but who will lead them there? With a pair of ultralight airplanes, Amy, her dad and their friends must find a way to do it...

Thursday, October 27: "Chicago"

Chicago centers on Velma Kelly and Roxie Hart, two criminals-of-passion who find themselves awaiting their trials for murder in 1920s Chicago. Velma, a vaudevillian, and Roxie, a housewife who also has dreams of becoming a vaudevillian, fight for the fame that will keep them from the gallows. When Velma's lawyer, notorious Billy Flynn (Richard Gere), makes Roxie a tabloid sensation, he sets up a singing and dancing catfight between the all-too-willing rivals. Starring Rene Zellweger and Catherine Zeta-Jones. Best Picture Academy Award-winning film.
