

Bellevue Police Department

Linda Pillo, Chief of Police

Violent Crimes Unit

Compiled By: Det. Jerry Johnson, (425) 452-2754
March 12, 2014

FOR PUBLIC DISSEMINATION

Factoria Brown Bear Armed Robbery

Case Number 14-7150

On Thursday, February 13, 2014, at approximately 6:20 AM, a female walked into the Factoria Chevron Brown Carwash convenience store. She approached the clerk and asked for cigarettes. When the clerk turned back to the counter with the cigarettes she saw that the female had dropped a handgun. The female picked up the handgun, which looked like a semi-automatic pistol, and demanded cash from the till. The clerk complied and the female fled the store with the cigarettes and cash. An exhaustive search of the area was unsuccessful in locating the female suspect. The Bellevue Police Department is asking the public for their assistance in identifying the female or any information leading to her arrest.

This female should be considered armed and dangerous.

If you have any information or can identify the above suspect please contact Detective Jerry Johnson at 425-452-2754.

Suspect Description:

Light-skinned adult female in her 20's based on demeanor and voice, about five foot or less, 100 lbs., possibly green eyes. Mature voice (adult) and spoke without noticeable inflection or accent. She was last seen wearing faded blue jeans, dark-colored hooded jacket, and gray fingerless gloves with green accents, scarf, and dark-colored athletic shoes with light blue or green laces. Weapon used appeared to be a large-framed, semi-auto pistol, dark gray or silver in color.