

Mahatma Gandhi Memorial Dedication Ceremony

Saturday, October 17, 11am–5pm
Bellevue Library

Join us in commemorating the Mahatma Gandhi statue gifted to the King County Library System by the Government of India, through the Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR).

The unveiling celebration at 2pm will feature dedication presentations by the Ambassador of India, the Consul General of India, SF and other dignitaries. Enjoy family activities and refreshments as we celebrate the memory of Mahatma Gandhi, the Apostle of Peace and non-violence.

Parking is limited. A free shuttle provided by Starline Bus Service will be available the day of the event, 10am-5pm from Hidden Valley Park, 1905 112th Avenue NE, Bellevue, WA 98044.

Bus routes to the Bellevue Library include Routes ST550, MT249, MT233, MT249, and MT271. For more information visit <http://tripplanner.kingcounty.gov>.

The Mahatma Gandhi statue was created by Anil Ram Sutar and will be dedicated to the People of Washington State by H.E. Mrs. Meera Shankar, India's Ambassador to the United States. This Statue has been made possible by the cooperation between the Government of India, ICCR, Consulate General of India, San Francisco, KCLS, the National Federation of Indian Americans, the Federation of Indian American Associations of Washington, the Gandhi Foundation of USA, the City of Bellevue, and the Trade Development Alliance of Greater Seattle.
