

Jeff Tangen
1511 NE 166th St.
Shoreline, WA 98155
206.367.3325

Museum Shows

Maryhill Museum, Goldendale, WA 2007 & 1999
A.C. Gilbert Museum, Salem, OR 6/98-7/98; weather vane exhibit

Public Art

November 2000, Kiosk Project for the Pike/Pine Neighborhood, Seattle, WA
March 2005, piece purchased by Wenatchee Art on the Avenue

Juried Shows

Art on the Avenue, Wenatchee, WA; 2007, 2006, 2005, 2004, 2002
Sculpture Without Walls, Moses Lake, WA 2007
Arts Council of Snohomish County, The Art of Flight 2007
Puyallup's Arts Downtown, Puyallup, WA; 2007, 2006, 2005
Peace Arch Park, Blaine, WA 2004
Edmonds Arts Festival, Edmonds, WA; 2003,1999,1997, 1996
Big Rock Garden, Bellingham, WA 1999
'Bainbridge in Bloom' Garden Show, Bainbridge Is., WA 1999
Greenwood Artwalk; Seattle, WA 1998
Northwest Stone Sculptors Assoc. MultiMedia Exhibit, January 1998, Seattle WA
Bumbershoot Festival 1997, Seattle WA; visual artist, Weather Vane installation
Featured 3-D Artist Lynnwood Library, Lynnwood, WA; January 1997
Sequim Arts Festival 1996, Sequim, WA; 'Honorable Mention'

Gallery Shows

Coordinator for 'Art House', 1998 Bumbershoot Festival
Contributing Artist Seattle Design Center's Design Home; March 1998
Art Not Terminal, Seattle WA; October 1994 to 2001

Artist's Statement

I use found and rediscovered objects to create metal sculpture and kinetic art. My kinetic pieces are replicas of real or fantasy machines and they can serve as weather vanes. My sculptural pieces highlight the symmetry and beauty of the rediscovered metal. I strive for a unity of design and execution. I want my pieces to be seen as a single unit and not a collection of 'found' objects.