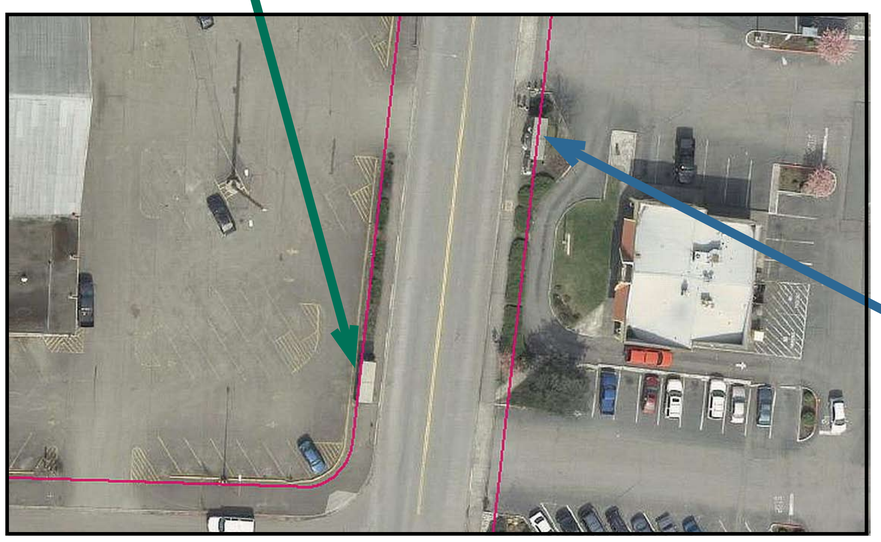
Newport Hills/Lake Heights Neighborhood Public Art Proposal
Artist: Bruce Myers

West Bus Shelter Features
- Leaf and pole elements, painted steel
- Spiral elements, painted steel
- Cut boulders forming seating area to north of shelter
- Mosaic applied to face of one boulder facing street
- Shelter retains existing bench inside

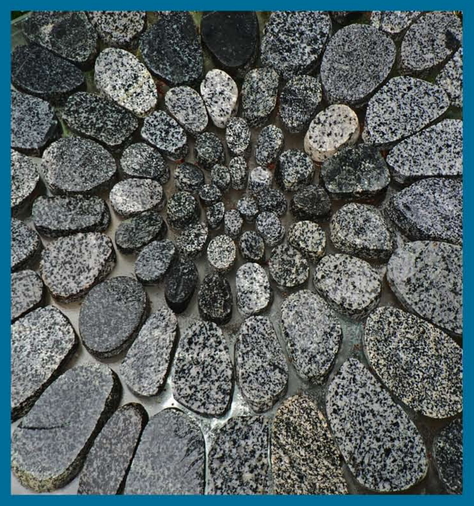
East Bus Shelter Features
- Leaf and pole elements, painted steel
- Spiral elements, painted steel
- Cut boulders forming seating area to south of shelter
- Section of back removed, creating opening to second cut boulder seating area
- Mosaic applied to face of one boulder facing street
- Shelter retains existing bench inside



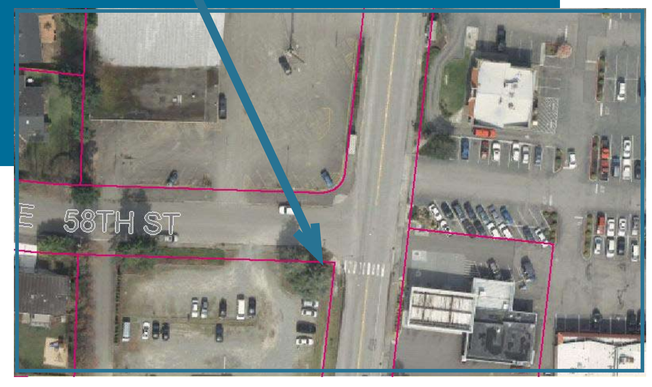
Themes and intent

- Community identifier and integrated art elements
- Aims to enhance sense of place, belonging, identity and experience of renewal
- Inspired by the native landscape and local geology
- Aims to inspire sustainable design goals for future improvements to the town center
- Portability: design can adapt to future development

Newport Hills / Lake Heights Neighborhood Public Art Project



Rain Chain Feature
Option 2

Rain Chain Dimensions And Materials


Painted Steel
16’ x 7’ D Area at Base.
Leaves approx. 36” Length
Granite Boulders
Integrated Stone Mosaic
Integrated Landscape Design