

Newport Hills / Lake Heights Inspiration Images

Artist Bruce Myers listened carefully to residents as they talked about their neighborhood, and he made many visits to the sites. It was the natural beauty of the neighborhood with its ravines and heavily treed areas that impressed him. Bruce collected these images as a starting point for his design and continuing inspiration along the way.