

In Celebration of Black History Month

Tuesday, February 5, 6-7:30pm

Crossroads Community Center

Community Room

16000 NE 10th Street, Bellevue, 98008

Presented by Living Voices.

All ages welcome.

The Right to Dream is a story about the struggle and sacrifice for civil rights in America. Local performers recreate a student's coming of age as an African American in Mississippi during the 1950s and 1960s. This program illuminates the issues of civil rights, leading audiences to understand how the fight against prejudice has shaped our history. Performance followed by a facilitated discussion.
