The Bellevue Police Department is releasing the following information pursuant to RCW 4.24.550 and the Washington Supreme Court Decision in State v. Ward, which authorizes law enforcement agencies to inform the public of a sex offender's presence in the community when such information will enhance public safety and protection. This notification is not intended to increase fear; rather, it is our belief that an informed public is a safer public.

Wesley Lu has been convicted of a crime that requires registration with the Sheriff's office in his county of residence. Further, his crime places him in a classification level that reflects the potential to re-offend.

Sex offenders have always lived in our communities. The Community Protection Act of 1990 requires them to register, thus giving law enforcement the ability to track their whereabouts, collect information and in some cases, share information with the community. Citizen abuse of this information to threaten, intimidate or harass sex offenders will not be tolerated. Such abuse could potentially end our ability to release this important information to the public.

ANYONE WITH KNOWLEDGE OF HIS WHEREABOUTS IS ASKED TO PLEASE CALL 911.
